Dear Friend:

The bearer of this letter is the man I called you about James Boyd.

I believe him to be a nice person so far as conduct is concerned, and if he gets his control he will be a good pitcher. I have seen him pitch some good games.

I believe in your league he may not be pressing so hard,
and it will give him a chance to loosen up a little.

I will talk to you again before you leave New York. My sincere wishes for success with The ball club.

Very Truly Yours
